

Alex DeMambro | AIA, LEED AP

Lives & works in Walla Walla, WA

alex@demambroarchitecture.com

Education

Boston Architectural College

2009 Master of Architecture

University of Massachusetts

2001 Bachelor of Economics

Johnson & Wales University

1993 Associates of Culinary Arts

Professional Experience

DeMambro Architecture LLC, Walla Walla, Wa: 2015-Current

2015 Principle

Walla Walla Historic Preservation Commission; 2013-2017

2013 Commissioner | Vice-Chairman

Walla Walla Downtown Foundation - Design Committee; 2011-2015

2011 Committee Member

USKH (Acquired by Stantec in 2014), Walla Walla, Wa 2008-2015

2014 Project Manager

2012 Project Architect

2009 Project Designer

Perry Dean Rogers | Architects, Boston, MA: 2002-2009

2008 Project Designer

2002 Intern

Professional Licensure

2018 Architect / State of Oregon # 11803

2012 Architect / State of Washington #10551

2013 NCARB Professional #76768

2009 LEED AP

2007 Member, American Institute of Architect

Recognitions

2015 Award for a Decade (Grand Prize) - Geis Power House Theater
Project Designer

2015 Award for a Decade - Whiteside Building /51 East Main St.
Project Architect

2014 Washington Main Streets - Excellence on Main Street Award
Downtown Residential Guidelines - Committee member

2014 Boston Society of Architects – Design Excellence Award
Massachusetts Maritime Academy Library - Project Designer while at PDR|P

2013 LEED Silver - SERE Force Support Facility
Project Designer - LEED coordinator

Active in the Walla Walla community Alex serves on the Board of Directors for the Walla Walla Chamber Music Festival, advises the school district on facility / master planning issues, and is a member of the Walla Walla Petanque club. Alex also served in the U.S. Army/Army National Guard and is veteran of the war in Afghanistan.